Call for Articles

The Azalean needs more good articles about azaleas, their care, and their use in the landscape.

Ideas for Topics:

- Articles describing new public gardens or special azalea collections being created in your areas.
- Descriptions and photographs of Society member gardens.
- Current research in azaleas being conducted at local universities, extension service gardens, or junior colleges.
- Information about azalea festivals and sales.
- Historic garden restoration stories.
- Articles about noteworthy azalea hybrid groups or new species or cultivar introductions.

Format: Send articles as Microsoft Word documents, either by hard copy and diskette in the US mail or by e-mail as attachments in Word.

Illustrations: Color print photographs, digital photographs, slides or black-and-white drawings can be used for illustrations.

Deadlines: The editor needs finished copy and illustrations by the following dates to ensure careful review and production:

Spring Issue—February 15

Summer Issue—May 30

Fall Issue—July 15

Winter Issue—October 15

Contact Information: Please send articles or ideas for articles to:
